We are in the midst of a world revolution between the forces of freedom and tyranny which cannot be stopped. It can only be won or lost if we are resolved to win it for freedom.

America was born of a revolution nearly two hundred years ago. Our Founding Fathers were revolutionaries. Documents like the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights and acts like the Boston Tea Party were revolutionary.

Over one hundred years ago, a second revolution occurred in America which sought to unite us, north and south, white and black, into one nation.

Today, we are in a third revolution because America forgot that she is a revolutionary Republic and abandoned the field to tyrannists abroad and bureaucrats at home. The evidences of that abandonment are on all sides:

Ever-accelerating government control over virtually every activity of the individual;

Schisms between generations, cultures and racial groups;

The transformation of many of our colleges from centers of education and learning to breeding grounds of despair and disorder;

The emergence of government-fostered monopolistic monoliths in business and labor;

Oppressive taxation which commandeers nearly half the income of the citizen;

Government interference with economic freedom at every level of commerce and industry.

Conscription of our youth in violation of the principle of individual liberty and at great damage to their patriotism and loyalty;

Clumsy government intervention in the internal affairs of other nations which often expands the very problems it is meant to solve.

Unwarranted concentration of power in our courts;

Severe corrosion in the traditional system of checks and balances among the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the Federal government, and at the Federal, state and local levels.

It is therefore incumbent upon the people of the United States of America to declare, here and now, in the Spirit of 1776, their determination to resist and remove all tyrannies, large and small, economic and political, domestic and foreign, so that every citizen may once again enjoy to the fullest life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

To that end, we here assembled for the first session of the National Citizens Congress assert that:

Ethical revolution is the solution to tyranny whenever it occurs in America and abroad.

To us ethical revolution means fundamental, rapid change toward freedom with minimum violence and maximum progress through the words and deeds of the citizens of the nations concerned.

To us ethical revolution can best be managed by professional practitioners whom we call Conflict Managers.

We further assert that as long as one nation or one individual is enslaved, no man is free and no peace may prevail.

We stand for the decentralization and drastic reduction of the Federal bureaucracy starting today.

We stand for racial justice as a primary imperative of our society.

We stand for maximum individual ownership of property and means of production combined with minimum taxation by governments.

We stand for a volunteer armed force in America, and the ultimate displacement of military operations by more humane revolutionary actions wherever possible.

Borders slightly on neo-fascism if you read between the lines, or with Y.A.F.'s Sharon Statement fn maximum progress with the least possible violence [illegible]

We call upon our fellow citizens of every race, creed, color, social and economic status to join us in a reaffirmation of the ideals of the American Revolution, to unite and fight to combat tyranny, poverty and injustice and to extend freedom, prosperity and liberty throughout the United States and the world.

Ed Butler ■ Lee Edwards Richard O'Mara

Michael Dunlap
M. David Whittington
Joel Klein
Tom Fiske
[illegible]
Paul Nelson
Laurence Dale
Joyce Griffith
Barbara Caffey
Barbara Phillips
Warren Deffebach
[illegible]
Leonard Healy
Alan W. Lock
William F. Norbie
Richard Harbaugh

Lois Baumgaden
[illegible]
Fred Zeb
Ken Oland
[illegible]
Linda Jeanne Young
[illegible]
[illegible]
Robin Lozes
Sharon Jacob
Doug Kennell
Ray Compton
Howard Kaye
[illegible]
Stephanie Lefkowitz
[illegible]
Doug L. Hunt

Dorothea Dwiggin
[illegible]
Carolyn Noble
Linda King
Elaine Simpson
[illegible]
[illegible]
Anne Edwards
Roderick P. Van Ender
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
B. A. Klein
Alan Wilson

INCA

SQUARE WORLD LIBERTARIAN FRONT (SQUARES)
1093 Broxton Avenue #212
Los Angeles, California 90024

ED BUTLER!

DATE_____

I agree with the "Declaration of Revolution" and I hereby apply as an Activist in the Movement. I enclose Minimum Dues of $_____.

NAME:_____

MAILING ADDRESS:_____

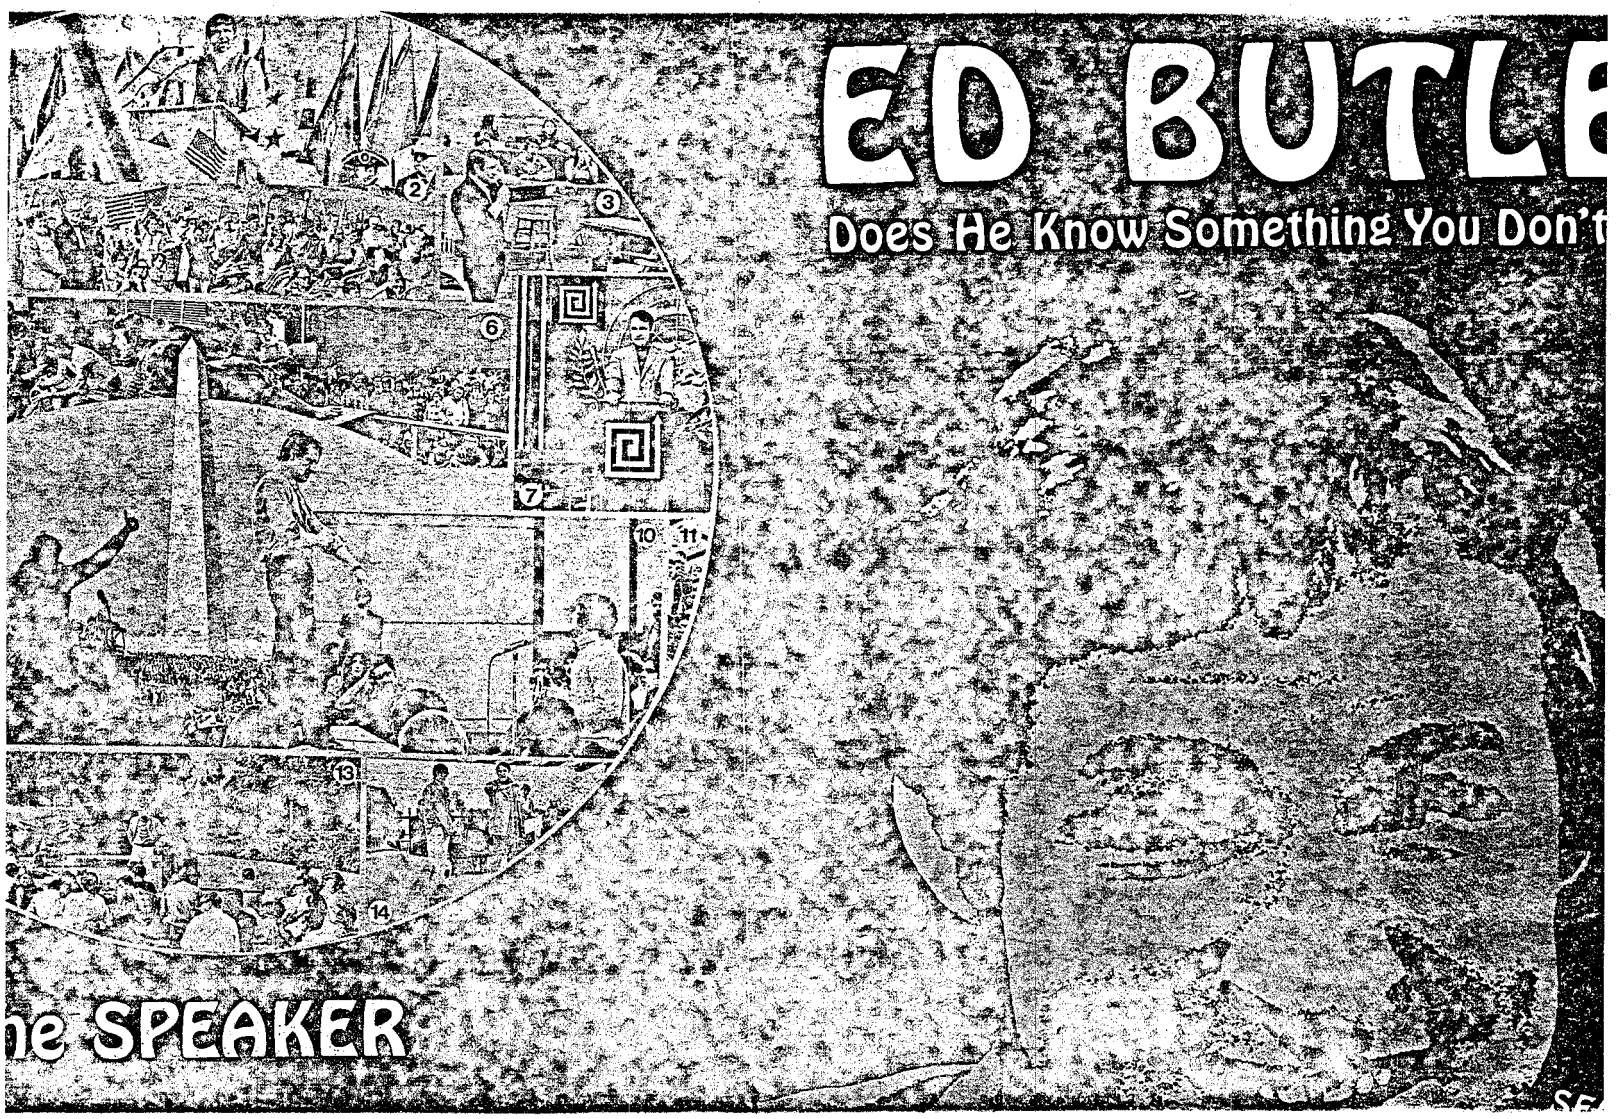
CITY_____STATE_____ZIP_____

AGE____SEX____SCHOOL_____MILITARY_____

OCCUPATION_____TEL ( )_____

CHECK ONE

ACTIVISTS	MINIMUM DUES
☐ Student	$ 3.00
☐ Military	$ 3.00
☐ Worker	$ 5.00
☐ Couple	$ 7.50
☐ Business/Professional	$10.00
☐ I enclose donation of	$_____
☐ Send more information	$ 1.00
☐ I wish to mobilize a SQUARE Circle



ED BUTLE
Does He Know Something You Don't he SPEAKER

The REVOLUTIONARY

...must break the Tyrannist monopoly of revolution, and seize the ini-
...with an ethic must break the Tyrannist monopoly of revolution, and seize the ini-
...time, action counts. He proves it with operations like these ...
...for Paul Krassner and Hippie

...a Square revolutionary ... believes maximum progress can be won only with ... mum violence? Actions could be a clue.

For example —

He really has managed mobs and mobilized marches, liberated school buildings and occupied public parks, organized civic leaders twice his age and founded a private educational organization to combat tyranny and ignorance in 16 nations of the hemisphere.

He actually has rapped with radicals and calmed cops, painted placards, distributed leaflets, published an underground newspaper, served as Public Affairs consultant to corporations at the $100 million level, trained student leaders to Strike Back! against tyranny, picketed SDS National Headquarters, protested in the midst of the YAF National Convention — in short, Ed Butler has been on the inside of the current American Revolution since it began in late 1963.

Then he broke into the headlines when he confronted Lee Harvey Oswald on radio shortly before President Kennedy was shot and warned the public. He openly forecast that urban riots would occur, that campus chaos would erupt and that economic dislocations would develop years before they did. Since the Oswald encounter, he has personally confronted leading radicals of right and left, known and interviewed celebrities from every stratum of the pop culture.

"The cat's name is Ed Butler . . . The Karl Marx of Squaresville, that's how he comes on. And sonofagun, I liked him, baby, you know that? I liked him."
Robert Mayer
NEWSDAY

"Butler, who could be called a middle-of-the-road activist . . . is a fierce debater and a good listener."
Don Page
Los Angeles TIMES

"Got A Campus In Turmoil? Call Ed Butler for Advice."
Gene Carlson
UPI (Atlanta Journal Headline)

"Ed Butler . . . one of the extraordinary young men of our times."
Willard Edwards
Chicago Tribune

"Ed Butler's weekly talk show is stealing the thunder from other emcees. Ed likes to put the tone on the gut issues of our time."
PHOTOPLAY

". . . it is refreshing to hear (Ed Butler's) voice of hope and optimism raised these days when so many voices are sounding the note of violence and doom."
Laurence Mullin
NEW YORK (RNS)

Village, California, the "Campus ... where student radicals and multimillio ists are mutually welcome in the skyl tooned with posters, paintings. Sharin of youth and big business, Butler ur community to commission young Con reverse suspicion and hostility, so that up to its social responsibility, stud their just ambitions, and the general from a new kind of competitive coop

Is Ed Butler a guy with a gimmick c a SQUARE revolutionary, dedicated to change through ethical means? As flict Management", Ed Butler does co that this field can help save civiliz turmoil, and war. His stated goal Renaissance of the Spirit during w potential will catch up with his sc the lurching spectre of revolution the good of humanity. And his ac sincere.

Is he succeeding? Invite him t yourself. Meanwhile peruse the pi themselves, and the answers are

"At Georgetown, for example, when a r vaded . . . Ed jumped from the stage ir the demonstrators . . . and finally pers participate in the conference they had rupt."
Ben Gross
NEW YORK S

"Handsome Ed Butler is packaging the earth — The Revolution."
TV PICTURE

"Ed Butler . . . is trying to convince cor should hire "Conflict Managers," tha who are tuned in on student movem municate with students and head of nesses."
Walter Winc
NATION'S

". . . a groovy new show, The SQUARI Ed Butler is the innovator, producer cal new concept in television . . ."
Rosanne
TV STAR

"Ed Butler is a new kind of televisi vital, stimulating and alive. Tune won't fall asleep."
PHOTO